1. On 25 May MAO Tse-tung called a meeting at his retreat at Hsiang Shan, west of Peiping, at 4:00 p.m. The meeting was attended by Soviet General MI-li-su-ko-fu, CHU Te, CHOU En-lai, P'ENG To-huai, NIEH Jung-chen, LIU Ya-lou, and four Soviet advisors. The subject was the failure of the three-phase strategy to drive the United Nations forces from Korea. Those at the meeting generally agreed that the reason for the failure was United States Air Force operations which completely destroyed Communist air bases in North Korea, making impossible Chinese Communist air force aid to ground forces.
2. The following is strategy agreed to at the meeting:
 - a. Speed up the opening of the second front in Indochina in order to divide the strength of the United States in the Far East.
 - b. Sacrifice men in Korea up to 30 to 1, to consume United States manpower and material and perhaps cause a political split in the United States.
 - c. Use troops from military areas for the Korean front, placing crack troops of field armies in reserve if possible.
 - d. Quickly repair airfields in North Korea to give support to ground forces.
 - e. Take measures to prevent the mass surrender of Chinese troops; former Nationalist officers and enlisted men, under suspicion, will either be separated or executed; native Kwangtung troops will be demobilized and sent to the Northwest for hard labor.
 - f. Strongly oppose the signing of a Japanese peace treaty and before a treaty is signed to deal another heavy blow against United States forces.
